

This is a unique sequel to the book Titus: A Comrade of the Cross written in a very different style, though none the less memorable, full of excitement and suspense! The author combines several stories together with great skill and ease, creating tension, making you wonder how things can play out until the very climax is reached. A blind girl and her brother just barely surviving in Egypt, threatened by the slave trade, almost without hope, one day hear about miracles happening in Jerusalem. They fly for their lives, hoping against hope and when they finally get there they find themselves at the foot of the cross. Is it too late? Was all their suffering for nothing?

Read by Rachel; Jessie Yun; David Lodes; Melvin Lee; Nathan Tripp; RogerThatVoice; Gloria Begemann; David Olson; Chris A. Hawkins; Becca Maggie; Adele de Pignerolles; Esther ben Simonides & Danielle Richardson

Book Co-ordinator & Proof Listener: Rachel

Meta Co-ordinator: David Olson

Total running time: 08:34:02

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org.
Cover picture original front cover. Copyright expired in U.S.A. Cover design by Rachel. This design is in the public domain.